"RECKLESS FAITH... FIRST YOU LEAP, THEN YOU GROW WINGS!"

CROSSFLAME TOUR THEME FOR 2014

Everybody wants a "sure thing." "Show me proof this will work," we say. "What are the odds?" we ask. "What will everybody think" is a common thought that sometimes leads us into mistakes, and sometimes keeps us from them.

Why does it seem that no matter how close we get to being "successful" or "popular," we still don't feel "complete?" And why is it that even when we get baptized, most of us don't feel "perfect" like we think we should? After all, isn't that the ultimate fix all for Christians?

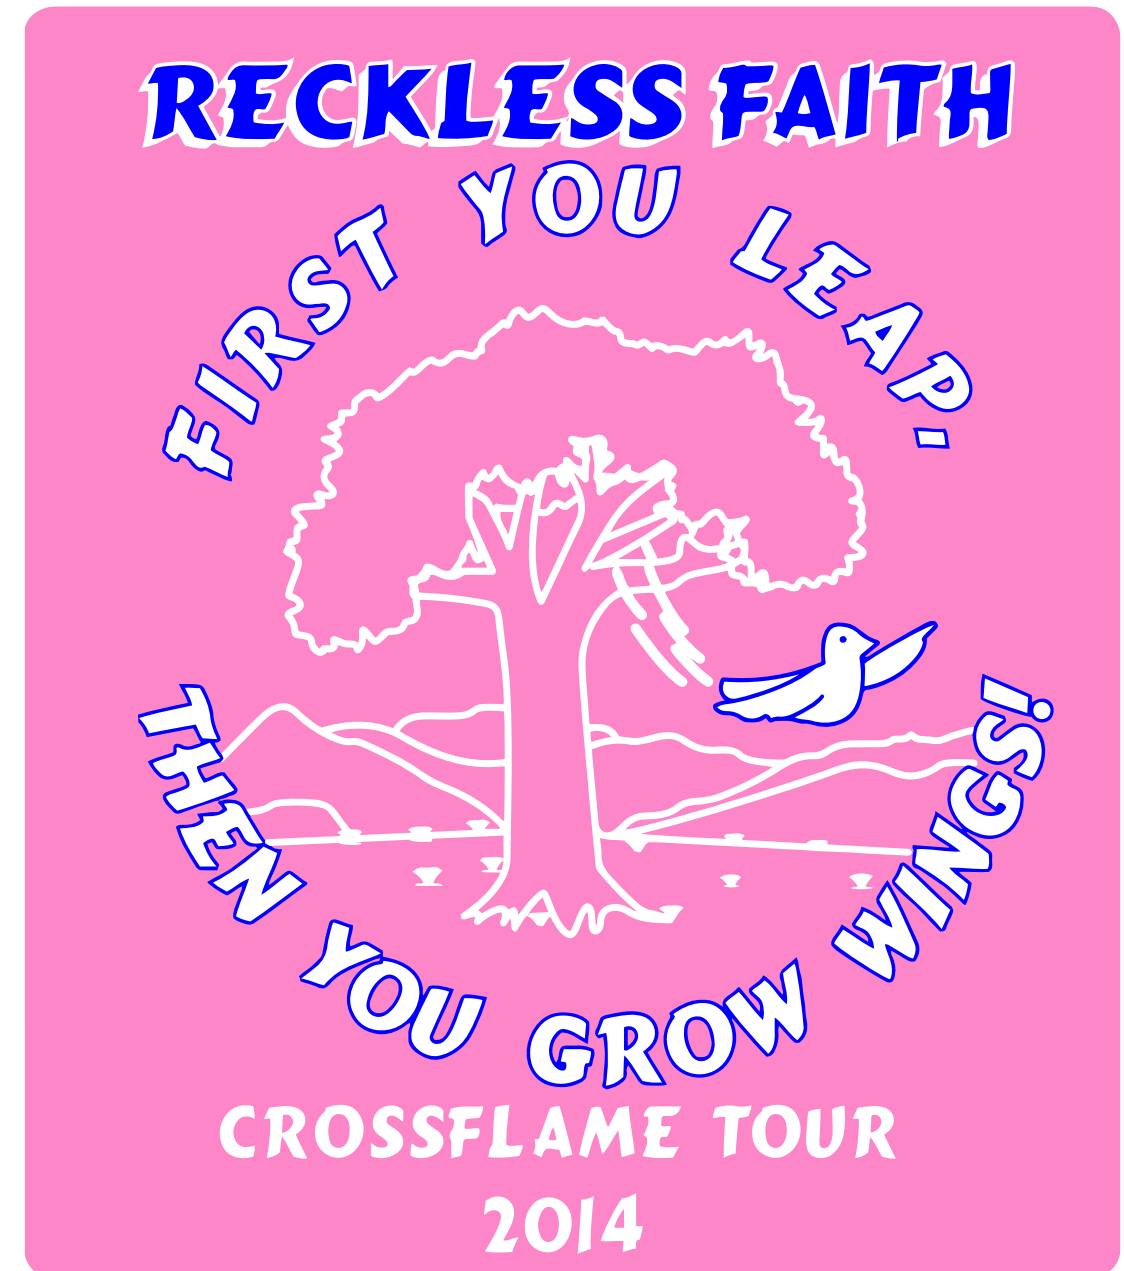

Even if we go to church every time the doors open, and say all the right words, and refrain from doing all the "thou shalt nots," our lives still don't seem to be what they are supposed to be. Why?

With so much going on in the world today, it seems safer and easier to simply focus on ourselves and our needs. Playing it safe seems best. "Don't leap into anything" is a tried and true philosophy. It is also a very safe one. Safe is good, isn't it?

What on earth could have been going on in the minds of Simon and Andrew, then James and John, to make them without hesitation, throw down their nets when Jesus said to them, "Come, follow me"? Over and over, the gospels tell us that Jesus repeated the challenge to those who claimed him. What leap of faith was required of them? What leap of faith is required of us?

Jesus made it clear that those who call themselves his disciples are called to a life of action. We are required a "Reckless Faith... First You Leap, Then You Grow Wings!"
